September 18, 2019 through January 27, 2020

While September marks Hispanic Heritage Month, the NY Latin American Art Triennial celebrates with the participation of over 100 Latino artists local as well as from the Caribbean, Central America and South America. The program included over 7 art exhibitions, throughout the Bronx, Queens and Manhattan, starting on:

Starting September 18th – October 8th 2019
Bronx Art Space 305 E 140th St Suite 1A, Bronx, NY 10454

Artist’s Reception September 18th 2019 – 6:00 pm
Artists Talk September 28th 2019 - 6:30pm

The 2019 edition of the NY Latin American Art triennial is called, “Progressive Transition” under this theme the exhibitions of the Triennial will present artworks referring to personal aspects of the sense of belonging.

It is a great pleasure for the Bronx Hispanic Festival Inc., to invite you to joint us for 2019 edition of New York Latin American Art Triennial celebration throughout the city of New York, showcasing panels of discussion, art exhibitions, urban installations and performances.

The main objective is to create awareness in the arts by developing an international network with Latin American or cultural related artists, as well as establish the opportunity to exhibit the best of their works. The event is to motivate the creative mind and challenge the contemporary global art community. These group exhibitions, will present art as an expression of the human condition and it reflects the notions of progress, civilizations, welfare, society and culture. NY Latin American Art Triennial is aimed to arts appreciation and cultural intern exchange, exhibits will be open to the public during the months of September throughout December 2019. All the events are family oriented. As well as celebrates not only the richness of the Latin American art but also the diversity of our community.
