(Flushing – February, 2010) – Kupferberg Center Performances welcomes children and their families to CLASSIC HITS FOR KIDS: PERCUSSION on Saturday, March 6th at 2 PM in LeFrak Concert Hall. PERCUSSION, the second of three concerts geared especially for children ages 6 -12, is co-presented with the Lawrence Eisman Center for Preparatory Studies in Music at Queens College.

CPSM opened its doors to the Queens Community in 1981. Today the well-respected music program includes students ages 3 to 17 from Long Island and the Tri-State area. The faculty consists of highly accomplished performer-teachers and recording artists who have toured the US and abroad including Japan, China, Australia and Brazil.

PERCUSSION features CPSM faculty and outstanding students ranging in ages 6 to 17 in an hour-long performance that includes creative pre-concert activities and a lively post-concert Q & A. Percussion builds on youngsters' natural habit of banging on things by showing how instruments such as the marimba, xylophone, and tympani create vibrant music. It's a lively afternoon of fun, featuring drumming from around the world.

The Classic Hits for Kids series continues on Sunday, March 28, with MEET THE COMPOSER, featuring specially selected chamber music and solo works by our mystery composer. This concert, the last of the series, will familiarize young listeners with one of the world's greatest musical giants.
