NEWS FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

HOLIDAY FAVORITE
THE NUTCRACKER
RESCHEDULED DUE TO SNOW
New Date: Sunday, January 10, 2010 at 3 PM
In Colden Auditorium @ Queens College

(Flushing – December, 2009) – The December 20th performance of The Nutcracker - cancelled because of this weekend's snowstorm- has been rescheduled for Sunday, January 10th, at 3pm. Tickets purchased for the December 20th date will be honored for the new date.

This charming story of the magical holiday night when a young girl dreams that her Nutcracker and other toys come to life in her living room, is a wonderful introduction to ballet and to the beloved music by Tchaikovsky. This delightful production choreographed by Edouard Kouchnarev—a new generation Russian choreographer who has danced and choreographed throughout the world—features dancers from the Russian Ballet Theater's professional and junior companies. Company dancers are all graduates and former soloists from the best dance schools and theaters of the former Soviet Union.

Russian American Ballet's fully-staged version of The Nutcracker features spectacular costumes. Many were created in the Kiev State Opera and Ballet Theater (Ukraine) by Victor Matsenin. Other costume design is by Lester's Company. Scenic Design is by Charles H. Stewart & Co. & Edouard Kouchnarev.

Kupferberg Center Performances is pleased to offer a special ticket price of only $12 for children 12 and under to this performance.
